

MUNDRAGON

THE DRAGON OF LAZINESS AND GIVING UP

Mundragon is a sleepy, sluggish dragon who loves to whisper things like, “Just quit,” or, “Why bother trying?” Every time you avoid a challenge, give up too soon, or do just enough to get by, Mundragon grows stronger. He wraps you in his lazy coils, making it harder to shine and show the amazing things you’re capable of.

Mundragon loses his strength when you show effort and grit! Every time you try your best, push through something difficult, or finish what you start, Mundragon’s grip weakens. Whenever you face challenges with determination and hard work, he grows weaker - and something brighter begins to rise...

SLAY

AND EXCELDAGON AWAKENS.

EXCELDAGON

THE DRAGON OF EFFORT AND EXCELLENCE

Exceldragon awakens when you give your best effort, even when it’s hard. His wings grow stronger with every challenge that’s faced head-on, every task that’s finished with care, and every moment you choose action over excuses. He reminds you that progress matters more than perfection, that hard work brings honor and joy, and that greatness is built one determined step at a time.
